

USE OF A BREEDER'S PREFIX

To obviate the need of correspondence and alterations to names the conditions governing the use of prefixes are drawn to your attention:

1. Although a receipt is issued by Dogs Victoria following payment of a fee for registration of a prefix, the granting of the application is subject to:

(a) Approval by the Management Committee of Dogs Victoria.

(b) No objection being raised by any person within a reasonable time after the application is printed in the Dogs Victoria Gazette and such objection being upheld by the Management Committee of Dogs Victoria.

These two conditions necessarily involve delays, but it is practice to allow the use of an approved prefix as soon as a receipt for the payment is issued, provided such use is at the applicant's risk of having to make a change later. No notification beyond the receipt for payment is sent unless an objection is raised.

The use of the approved prefix permitted provided:

1. To be used in naming every dog and bitch bred by the owner of the word.
2. Not to be used in naming dogs the owner of the word did not breed.

NOTE: Clauses 1 and 2 above are applied very strictly. If for instance, where the word be registered for a husband, it may not be used in naming dogs bred by his wife or family, and vice versa. If registered by Mr and Mrs Blank, it may not be used in naming dogs bred separately by Mrs Blank or by Mr Blank, or any other person.

Because the names of dogs (including the prefix) are limited to 30 letters it is advisable to select a short prefix name.
